

Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

JO. B. ROGERS, Editors and Proprietors.

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1892.

The Tariff Reformers will have no difficulty in naming a "logical" candidate. The trouble will be to nominate a winning one.

On May the 1st at Anchorage a negro by the name of Henry Ready, without cause, shot and killed a white man by the name of Billman. Ready made his escape but will be lynched if caught.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says all the "good western men" whom the Democrats are considering are renegade Republicans. On the other hand the ones the Republicans have in view have always been sound Republicans and are yet.

The Freedmen's Journal, a paper published at Owensboro by colored editors, reached our office Tuesday. The Journal is ably edited and is neat in its make-up. The colored race can be greatly benefited by such a paper, and they should give it their hearty support.

In Wyoming a civil war has been going on between the Rustlers and the Cattle Kings. Recently a posse, headed by the Cattle Kings, were surrounded by about five hundred Rustlers at the T. A. Ranch, and the Goys' government had to send troops to their relief.

FERNAND WARD, of the late firm of Grant & Ward, of New York City, who was sent to the Sing Sing penitentiary six years ago, was set free April 30. In youth he had learned the printer's trade, and while in confinement he did the prison printing, and is said to have been one of the most useful prisoners ever confined in that institution.

The Democrats seek to repeal the Sugar Bounty law. They should go the next step and offer a bill reimposing the duty on sugar. Senator Roger Q. Mills said in Ohio last fall that he would put the duty back on sugar, because it is a revenue tax, owing to the little sugar produced in this country. That is exactly why the Republicans took it off. Mills justifies the Republican action.

The one phenomenon the editor of the Democratic newspapers and the statesmen of that party can not be explained, is the wonderful growth of the United States in the past thirty years, notwithstanding during all, save four years of that time, it has been the helpless nation of "Republican misrule and oppression." About the only thing in all those years which has not been improved and developed is the principles of the Democratic party.

The bills the Democrats have offered in Congress will be offered to the country as their platform on the tariff question. Yet the authors of those bills have been frank in their avowal that if the Democrats are given power on that comparatively moderate platform their purpose is to break down the whole tariff system. The action in which the House decided to consider the Bland bill will be pointed to as proof of the moderate sentiment of the Democratic party on the silver question. Yet the overwhelming majority of the Democratic party is known to favor free coinage of silver, and their leaders are frank to acknowledge that if they are put in power at the coming election they will consider themselves authorized to rip up the financial system of the country by passing a free coinage bill. This is the characteristically dishonest and straddling position of the Democratic party for many years.

Sunday School Convention.
The County Sunday School Convention is called to meet in Hartford, June 14th, at which time every Sunday School in Ohio county is requested to be represented.

Much important work is to be done, and a general encouragement of the Sunday School interest of the county is to be attempted. The pastors of the various churches in the county are requested to co-operate with us in this work. Let us have your assistance.

W.M. MILLIGAN, Pres.

IDA DUKE, Sec'y.

Religious.

Church meeting at the Baptist Church Saturday evening 7:30 o'clock. All the members are respectfully requested to attend. Preaching Sunday morning by the pastor, Subject: "Christians belong to Christ"—text 1 Cor., iii, 23. Baptism Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at which time five young ladies will receive the ordinance. The public generally invited to attend all these services.

J. S. COLEMAN, Pastor.

Speaking of Miles Orton's new railroad shows that are to exhibit at Beaver Dam on Wednesday, May 11, an exchange says: "Miles Orton's railroad Circus, Museum, Menagerie and Hippodrome were in town last Monday, and Mendota never was so crowded with its neighboring population. The people turned out en masse to see what proved to be the greatest show of modern times. Each department was so very complete in its vastness that the marvel is how so much can be gotten together and exhibited for so little money. The trick elephant and trick ponies are each worth more to see than the price to the whole show. Every feature is of the best, and all are so moral and refined as to please the most fastidious. The whole outfit are nice people to do business with, and our only regret is that we can't reasonably expect to exchange compliments often than once a year. Miles Orton & Co.'s Shows have left a good impression, and will be heartily welcomed whenever they choose to come and see us again."

For Sale.

One 3 year old mare, one thoroughbred bull, two milch cows and two calves. For terms call on or address JOHN J. McHENRY, Hartford, Ky.

RALPH'S CHAPEL.
May 3.—A revival is in progress here at the M. E. Church and great interest manifested by the people. It is being conducted by Revs. W. D. Cox, of Corydon, and D. E. Barrett, of McHenry. A powerful meeting last night, and prospects are good for a grand meeting.

A SERVANT OF GOD.

King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba.

In connection with John Robinson's 10 big shows combined, this wonderful spectacle has a breadth of effect with surprise and delights. Its gorgeous processions and splendid balls are incomparable, and nothing so vast or imposing has ever been seen in this country before. We gaze upon the ancient City of Jerusalem animated with life and glowing with color. It is no mere artificial show, but a vivid and vast realization of life in the time of Solomon. The senses are beguiled by its reality as well as its surpassing beauty and the perfection of its details.

Will exhibit at Beaver Dam, May 25.

ANDERSON'S BAZAAR

Is "chock full" of new, seasonable goods and is offering all of them at prices that make customers buy.

Never before has the Bazaar been able to sell goods as cheap as it is doing this season, and the reason for this is our Mr. S. W. Anderson, who is one of the shrewdest buyers in the State, spent a month this season in New York and other Eastern Markets picking up bargains WHERE DEALERS HAD TO HAVE THE CASH, and as a consequence, he could name his own price on almost every article bought, and would not buy a single article unless it was a bargain.

We can't name prices on everything, but below will quote prices on many articles you need every day, by which you may judge how we are selling other goods. We now offer.

Tobacco canvas at 1½ and 1¾.
Heavy Domestic Sheetings, yard wide, at 5c.
Heavier " " " " " 5½c.
Sea Island Cotton, nice " " 5½c.
Bleached Cotton at 5c, 6c, 7c, 8c, 9c and 10c.
Woolen Dress Goods at 8c, 10c and 12½c and up.
Colored Shirting, checks, 5c, 6c and 8c.
Heavy stripe Shirting at 8½c with 10c.
Cotton Jeans at 12½c, 15c, 16c, 17½c and 20c.
Corsettes, heavy at 50c, for 45c.
" worth 65c for 50c.
" 70c " 65c.
" 80c " 80c.
Best R. & G. Corsets at $1.00.

In Dress Goods, Ginghams, figured Lawns, Calicoes, Black and White Wash Fabrics we can please you in both quality and price.

In Ladies' Underwear, Cotton Lisle Thread and Silk, we have something to suit all.

In Kid Gloves, Silk Mits, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Ties, Laces, Ribbons, Buttons, Dress Trimmings, &c., we can please all at correct prices.

The Bazaar sells only the best solid HONEST LEATHER Shoes for Ladies and Children. See the Kid Room for Ladies that we sell for $1.00.

OUR MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Has never been rushed as it has this season, but we have the stock and can suit you exactly in both style and price. If you want a hat that is stylish and becoming, call on Sara and she will please you.

Finally, if you need goods and want to save money on your spring bill, visit

Anderson's Bazaar.

Feathers wanted at 45c. per pound.

TAYLOR & CO.

The two Big Shows that will visit our town in the next few days will attract many people. But in the meantime we are attracting the attention of the people far and near by our CASH-PRICE INDUCEMENTS.

Space will not allow us to quote prices, but plain, blunt facts, that cannot be denied. We are under-selling ourselves since we adopted our Cash System.

If you have money to spend, only try and see what we propose to do. We cannot credit anyone, but can save anyone money.

Every Farmer, His Wife, Son and Daughter are invited to bring your WOOL and come and see us for your spring bill of goods. We can do you much good. Don't allow the wool pulled over your eyes by some Merchants that sells on long credit and then have Check and Galt to stand up and say: "We will sell as close as them sellers." Don't be humbugged any by his song of "we'll accommodate you;" you have paid him many times for such an accommodation in the big profits of credit.

We are going to expect you in to see us in a few days for your Clothing, which never was better nor cheaper from the Children's Jersey Suits up to the finest Men's Suits.

Our Dress Goods and Millinery will be of great interest to you, and with these two lines we feel safe in saying that nobody excels us in quality nor equals us in price.

So Come with your WOOL

The C. P. Congregation at this place has employed Rev. G. B. Mc-Donald for another year. Bro. Mc-Donald is well thought of, both as a preacher and as a gentleman, and we hope that the new year may be a profitable one to him as well as his congregation.

Of 171 white voters in town quite a small number were born here;
of the county officers only two are natives; five physicians, only two are natives, and of about fifty business men, very few were born in town. So it will be seen that native born Hartfordinians are greatly in the minority.

for Circuit Court Clerk. The body was composed of representative men and was orderly throughout.

Hartford Republican

FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1892.

Owensboro Correspondence.

There is great deal of talk going on here about the future bright prospect of dear old Hartford, most everybody conversing on that subject is impressed that Hartford will be the railroad town all over. They think there is no trading place like Hartford in Ohio county. It is the only place away from the railroad, these people carry the style of the season with them, in fact, there is nothing in the world that Hartford's merchants don't bring on. There is the well-known firm of "Sara & Me," which always has the latest style for Hartford's belles. There is the old reliable and largest trading place in the county, M. M. Khan's, known better as Hartford's Trade Palace, an establishment, which only can find its equal in the largest cities, carrying the finest stock of clothing and goods furnishing goods at reasonable prices. So that people from all adjoining counties go there to secure the big bargains it offers. Who has not been trading there, left satisfied and with the impression that Mr. Fred Baruch is the best, jolliest and most successful salesman Hartford ever owned? We are always glad to hear of people trading with him, especially anxious to go to see him again. Keep on that way, young man, and soon we hope to greet you as the leading merchant in the country.

The Ohio river is on a big boom, and we boys have a big time throwing chunks into the river.

PIECE.

Obituary.
Died, at the home of V. C. Ward, her son-in-law, March 23, '82, Mrs. Sarah A. Wallace; she was in the 78th year of her age. Her remains were taken to the church, and her funeral was preached by Rev. R. D. Lashbrook. She was a faithful, zealous Christian from early womanhood to the day of her death.

After services the remains were taken to the family burying ground and were laid beside her husband, Talbot Wallace, who preceded her on the 5th of October, 1861. My heart aches, and I pen these words, trembling with a lingering form of sadness. I know that God doeth all things well, and whom He loveth He chasteneth. Yet never since my precious mother closed her eyes in death have I seen the same sweet innocence beaming from a human face into my own as from the face of my own dear mother.

The cord that binds our hearts

To this cold earth is riven;

The tie that binds our souls

Is drawing us to heaven.

Sylvester White and family and Mrs. Bille Westerfield were the guests of T. A. Fuqua and wife, near Magan, Saturday and Sunday.

Our hearts are lonely and desolate, While in this world so dark—

For now indeed we know 'tis true,

Death loves a shining mark.

She's gone where angels blend their

notes

With mortals freed from care;

They have no sorrow in their songs.

No winter in their year.

And while we mourn to be bereft,

And murmur at His love;

She shines a star of heavenly light;

To guide our souls above.

On each recurring springtime

The flowers will sweetly bloom,

And sunny skies will shine upon

Her lone and silent tomb.

April 26.—Business in our little town is very lively, farmers are busy preparing for planting some corn.

Clint Carson's child, which was reported on the sick list last week, is still very sick with few symptoms for the better.

Messrs. Cal. Likens and David San- derfer, of Horton neighborhood, were in town yesterday.

Miss Cliffe Gray is visiting her grandfather, J. A. Taylor.

Another pleasant term of Beaver Dam School has come and gone and is now numbered with the past. For the past eight months the good students of Beaver Dam School have ever been ready to do and master their assigned work, and now after pleasant, but hard work, they are ready to spend a pleasant vacation.

Miss Edna James, who has been attending school here the past term, has returned to her home near Cromwell.

A. J. Buskell, of Paradise, moved to our town last week. We welcome him to our midst.

ROCKPORT.

Miss Belle Taylor, Beaver Dam, is visiting Mrs. M. J. Williams.

Mrs. Virgil Warden has returned home, bringing her little niece with her.

Herbert Brewer, one of the most popular drummers, was in town Thursday smiling on his old friends.

Miss Jene Warden left Tuesday for her home in Richmond, Mo. We regret Miss Warden's departure, and hope she will soon return.

One of our dashing, handsome livers has been paying the devoted to half a score of maidens. He broke an engagement with one of these maidens with a plea that another one was suffering from a sprained ankle (?) and required his assistance for the evening. The following evening he wished to make peace with this disconsolate (?) maiden and so asked her to go boating and say adieu. The theme was so inspiring that the maiden composed the following parody on the same "Chechetta."

Riding was young Robertte; Found a dear girl to woo, She was a sad coquette, He was a great "ho doo." She sprained her ankle for you—

Robertte, Robertte; You shan't come to say adieu.

Silent was young Robertte, Grieved in his heart was he; For though a sad coquette None was so dear as she—

Jennette, Jennette, I go for love of you; Oh, speak then dear Jennette— She only said, adieu;

"Let me," he said, "Jennette This little boat ride take;" Laughed then this gay Jennette And no boat ride would take—Robertte, Robertte, I know now you won't do— Robertte, Robertte, We'll forever say adieu."

Our hearts are lonely and desolate, While in this world so dark—

For now indeed we know 'tis true,

Death loves a shining mark.

She's left this scene of mortal strife,

Where storms of sorrow blow;

Where troubles like a winter's flood,

Their ceaseless torrents flow.

Our hearts are lonely and desolate,

While in this world so dark—

For now indeed we know 'tis true,

Death loves a shining mark.

She's gone where angels blend their

notes

With mortals freed from care;

They have no sorrow in their songs.

No winter in their year.

And while we mourn to be bereft,

And murmur at His love;

She shines a star of heavenly light;

To guide our souls above.

On each recurring springtime

The flowers will sweetly bloom,

And sunny skies will shine upon

Her lone and silent tomb.
